

CITY MUST BUY THOSE SCOWS.

Or the Barney Company Will Withdraw Its Service Within Three Days.

FITCH DENOUNCES THE MOVE.

It Is Finally Decided to Pay $20,000 Down, and Then Talk It Over.

MR. STONG QUESTIONS A BILL.

The Rapid Transit Commissioners Ask for $21,792.42 for Expenses.

The fact that the Barney Dumping Company wishes the city to buy its patent scows was again brought to the attention of the Board of Estimate and Apportionment today.

A communication was read, in which the company threatened to withdraw its service within three days unless the city paid it the money due for disposing of garbage since Nov. 15, amounting to $20,000.

Comptroller Fitch said that he thought the action of the Barney Company looked very much as if the company was trying to force the city to purchase its boats. The charge per day for the use of the scows had, the Comptroller said, been raised from $17 to $25, and then to $30.

Tax Commissioner Barker agreed with the Comptroller that it was a game of chance to force the city to buy the boats.
It was finally decided to pay the Barney Company $20,000 on account and talk the matter over later and see whether the city stood in relation to the company.

The Board granted a transfer of $10,000 from the appropriation for sweeping to that for the removal of snow and ice.
The Comptroller said that the issue of $20,000 worth of assessment bonds to pay the city's share of the Park avenue improvement above One Hundred and Sixth street. The city is under obligation to pay $60,000 towards the work.

A resolution was passed giving the Comptroller authority to pay $9,792.42 to the Washington Bridge Park Commissioners for services at $10 a day each for the appropriation Commissioner E. H.
Martins will receive $1,500, and Commissioners David McCune and W. M. Hill $2,000 each. What is left goes to the stenographer.

The request of the Park Department for $12,000 to lay out Corcoran's Hook Park was also granted.

The various charitable institutions in the city were voted a total of $6,449 from the Board for the month of December.

Mayor Strong looked askance at the Comptroller when that official presented a request of the new Rapid Transit Commissioners for $21,792.42 for the expenses already incurred by the Commission. The Mayor asked, sotto voce:
"Have they not been paid for the work the matter was laid over until the next meeting."

The Comptroller was authorized to issue revenue bonds to the amount of $20,000 to pay property owners for lands taken by the city for the widening of Tiverton street from One Hundred and Twenty-seventh street and Claremont place.

With the exception of a slight lameness in his left leg, which he has been rheumatic gout, which came on so suddenly Sunday night and upset Mr.
Thomas C. Platt's harmony plans, had all disappeared this morning.

The Mayor was as chipper as a snow bird all the forenoon, and cracked jokes with Secretary Job Hedges "to beat the band," as Daniel said. Daniel is now confidential messenger to His Honor, and used to be the Mayor's man.
By that same token Daniel probably has a better line on the Mayor's gout than anybody but the family doctor.

All attempts, however, to pump Daniel on the subject of whether or not the Mayor's last attack is the simon pure article have proved abortive.

Mayor Strong said this morning that he had looked over his diary and found that the Liquor Dealers' Association Committee had not been paid for their work. He didn't know, though, whether the saloon men would call, because he hadn't learned from the saloon men whether they would call, which gave the temperance people a shock.

WAR ON STREET STANDS.

Trying to Prevent the Sale of Cigars and Candy.

The East Side Candy and Cigar Store Protective Association has declared war against all cigar and candy stands on the east side, a great undertaking, with great responsibilities, but which will from now on be a matter of course. The outlook being crowned with success. The object of all cigar and candy stands is to sell cigars and candy. The President Rosenwald wrote to Mayor Strong asking why the Department of Public Works allowed these stands to exist. The Mayor wrote that he had ordered a full investigation of the stand of Public Works, in which it was claimed that by power conferred upon him by the Board of Estimate and Apportionment he had the right to grant licenses and privileges to expose merchandise for sale on the sidewalk.

The Mayor expressed himself in favor of the crusade begun by the new organization.

Board Clerk Levy Goes Out.
Arthur W. Levy resigned his position as board clerk today. His explanation was that he could not get along satisfactorily with the board. Mr. Levy is understandably at odds with the board.
He has been a clerk in the Sheriff's office for many years.

The Dumping Scows All Right.
The two dumping scows, which went off today after a long stay, were picked up by the Chapman wrecking tug and brought to this morning.

Grip Claims Thirteen Victims.
The Bureau of Burial Permits reports thirteen deaths from grip in the twenty-two hours ending at 1 o'clock today. This is an increase of one over the day before.

The Press Publishing Co.
Gentlemen:

It gives us pleasure to state that in 1894, from January to December inclusive, we furnished "The World" with thirty-three million, four hundred and eighty-two thousand and four hundred and forty-three pounds (33,482,443 lbs.) of paper, in roll, for which amount payment has been made. This is the largest order ever furnished in one year to a newspaper, either in this country or abroad.

Yours very truly,

FOOTPADS IN CHICAGO.

Bank Cashier and His Friend Attacked by Highwaymen.

CHICAGO, Jan. 25.—A bold attempt was made last night to rob John Herman, cashier of E. W. Zander's Bank, at 125 East Ravenswood Park Boulevard, of $3,000 in cash and $1,000 in notes. It is the custom of Cashier Herman every evening to deposit the money taken by the bank in its daily business in the vaults at the corner of Wilson avenue, about 200 feet from the office of the bank.

After leaving his left bank at the usual time, carrying the money and notes, many of them negotiable, in a small hand-sack. He was accompanied by Guy Stark, a real-estate dealer, who had gone but a short distance when a man suddenly stepped in front of Mr. Stark and knocked him down with a blow from his fist, at the same time throwing a quantity of pepper in his face. Another man came up behind Mr. Herman and struck him over the head with a club.

Mr. Herman, however, did not lose his head, and he and Stark cried for help.
Several persons came running to their assistance, and the two highwaymen disappeared.

The County Grand Jury today found indictments for forgery in the first and third degrees against Henry E. Beecher, and two for forgery in the third degree against Vincent R. Schenck, the directors in the American Casualty and Insurance Company of Baltimore that failed some time ago for $200,000.

The indictments were based on evidence that these two directors had put in bogus applications for insurance in order to swell the volume of business.

Hotel Fires Bring Thieves.

During the fire on last Sunday night at the Hotel Castle on Amsterdam avenue and One Hundred and Third street, R. L. Scorer, a broker, was in the hotel. He was seen by a man who was in the hotel. He was seen by a
man who was in the hotel.

The clean appearance of the streets today, especially in the lower part of the city, indicates that Col. Waring has been attending to his duty. The snow had scarcely begun to fall when gangs of laborers with brooms and shovels were at work on all the streets, piling it up, and the cartmen began to remove it.

All along Broadway, the Bowery and lovely avenues, and most of the interesting streets, the snow was swept and shoveled into great heaps. The crossings were clear and walking and riding were unobstructed.

The new Street-Cleaning Commissioner has broken the record as far as work and clean streets are concerned.

Deputy Street-Cleaning Commissioner had scarcely begun to get his feet planted in the snow when he was principal up-town streets leading to the city is much easier," he said, "to get rid of a heavy fall than a light one, for the reason that with a heavy fall we

NO WASTY WASTE OF FUNDS.

Aldermen Will Let Committees Investigate Hereafter.

Brown Seated Now with No More Fear of a Contest.

At a meeting of the Board of Aldermen today the letter of W. H. Kilbry was placed on file, in which he announced his intention of discontinuing his conduct of the place on the Board now occupied by Nicholas T. Brown, of the Second District. The Committee on Contested Seats was discharged from further duty on the case.

The Law Committee's report on Alderman Wanda's resolution regarding the Board of Aldermen was allowed to act in conjunction with the Mayor in the consideration of legislation affecting the conduct of the Board.

There was talk about Alderman Goodman's motion to refer to the Board of Aldermen the expenditure of money referred to committees for consideration before being placed on the Board.

This was something new, and didn't seem to strike some of the Tammany members favorably. It was finally resolved to refer the matter to the Committee on Rules for report.

President Jerolomon was of the opinion that at Alderman Goodman's idea was a good one. He believed he was doing the city a favor by paying and improving streets just because somebody else had done it.

Alderman Wanda learned something a little later. A resolution was introduced providing for the Board of Aldermen to be elected by the people, which the owner had neglected to do.

Alderman Wanda was asked to be excused from voting, but he declined to do so.
He saw the city should pay for fencing in other people's property.

He voted no, much to the regret of the other members of the Board.
